Stolen! Stolen! Claim Them Now

"Stolen, stolen, stolen!" This is the cry of many of Pershing's students when they discover that they have misplaced some of their belongings.

Instead of yelling the word "stolen", why don't you go to the Lost and Found or the Gym and look for your "lost" article.

Eight barrels of shoes totaling over $500 are found in the Boys Gym yearly. From six to eight barrels of gym shorts and shirts are found yearly, and everything the school issues such as text books are found in the hundreds.

Students go hungry and make poor notebook grades because of their carelessness of leaving their lunches and notebooks in the gym.

The latest inventory of the Girls' Gym disclosed that there are 15 gym suits, 10 pairs of shoes, two coats, 16 scarves, eight rings, four watches, and six belts lying ownerless in the gym.

Any number of discs, lockets, crosses, bracelets and any other jewelry can be found in abundance in the gym.

If your English teacher is counting off because you do not use ink, then go to the Lost and Found for there are 45 fountain pens to be found there.

Don't pay for a lost textbook! Yours may be one of the 54 in the Lost and Found. If you're not seeing well get your friend to lead you to the Lost and Found and claim one of the eight pairs of glasses.

108 pieces of clothing can be found in the Lost and Found, plus 16 notebooks and 56 miscellaneous books.

Claim your belongings so that you will stop crying "stolen."

Honor Society Names New Officers

The Pershing Chapter of The National Junior Honor Society recently elected its new officers. They are as follows: President - Jimmy Lindley, Vice-President - Travis Broesche, Secretary - Judy Bell, Treasurer - William Hamlett, Reporter - Dotty Adams, Historian - Carol Cloninger, Induction Chairman - Rayford High, Initiation Chairman -

Harriet Schaffer, and Credentials Chairman - Nancy Culbertson.

One of the many things the National Honor Society is doing is working at Wolf Home, a place for people getting over Polio. First they take a training course and then five members work every Monday and Friday.

Look At Us Today!

Pershing's Student Council has been busy these past 6 weeks. Besides sponsoring the L7 dance Friday, February 17, they are responsible for the lovely music in the lunch room.

Contests are also one of their accomplishments: They are sponsoring a poster contest in February for the 7th, 8th and 9th grades, with a $2 prize for the winner. In March an essay contest is what they are sponsoring. The executive committee will be the judges.

The Student Council is also responsible for the posters in the lunch room. They were made by Carole (C. C.) Cloninger, Judy Bell, Stephen Engberg, Jimmy Lindly, Martha Hansen, Mary Ann Davidson, Janice Glanzer, Pam Popkin, Marsha Langston, and Ann Leatherwood.
